

IMPORTANT NOTE:

Accounts for employees and analysts are given from the company and they don't have to sign up.

So to use an employee account use the following data:

Username: employee

Password:123456789ss

To use an analyst account, use the following data:

Username: analyst

Password:123456789ss

If you wish to have more accounts all you have to do is to create a new user from admin panel and add them to the proper groups.
